

ABSTRACT

An automated system for the loaning and saving is developed in the order to computerised the operation of the loaning and customer service of the sabaragamuwa developing bank at Godakawela in the existing system, all the operation of sbbank are manual. the proposed system covers all loaning customer activities and funtion . The objective of this automation is to enhance its services by the using information technology . The new system will develop under the following areas of operation

1.loaning

2.requist interest and tax

3.counting interest and tax

4.accounting the no paid loan customer

5.accounting the no paid loan

6.accounting the no paid loan

*relational data base for data entry *quary facilities of the finding relational details of customer loans

Reports

* loan *bad deth ledger report(term)

*term report and other