Introduction

Sri Lanka, the sacred country which inherits a proud history and an ancient heritage in a primary landscape of 65610 sq km, but I felt it is important to create this website in an era where newspapers, books and magazines are mostly used to obtain information about Sri Lanka.

It has been attempted to present many information, which is important for the foreigners who are willing to know about Sri Lanka specially from this website.

Information of this website is presented mainly under nine sections and if this website is able to acknowledge any person who wants to know about Sri Lanka, I can be happy regarding the success of my attempt.
