

ENGLISH-SINHALA BILNGUALISM OF RURAL LOCALITIES: WELIMADA DIVISIONAL SECRETARIAL AREA.

BA project assessment
This report has been awarded the grade

(A) B C D

Department of Languages
Sabaragamuwa University of Sri Lanka

THE SABARAGAMUWA UNIVERSITY OF SRI LANKA
FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES & LANGUAGES
DEPARTMENT OF LANGUAGES

REG. NO. 97/SL/D/201

INDEX NO. EA 253

1999

Contents

	Page No.
Introduction	1-2
1. Language Policy and Bilingualism	3-6
Linguistic Changes and Effects
Bilingualism and Better Public Service
2. Bilingualism and Education	7-10
Vernacular Schools and the Failure of Bilinguals
Impact of International and Private Schools
English and Social Mobility
3. Linguistic Features of Rural Bilingual Discourse	11-14
Attitudes towards Code-Mixing
Loan Words and Bilingual Discourse
4. Types of Bilingualism	15-18
Case study 1- Vision of Balance
Case study 2- One Never Beats Another
Case study 3- Linguistic Disruption
Conclusion	19-20
References	21
Bibliography	22
Appendices	23-26